

A M E R I C A

1851

Designer: George Steers

L.O.A. 101' 9"

L.W.L. 96' 6"

Draught: 10' 8"

New York Yacht Club

Beam: 22' 6"

Displacement: 170 Tons

Sail Area: 5,236 Sq. Ft.

Designed by George Steers for a syndicate of powerful New York Yacht Club members to race against an entire fleet of British yachts. America won the hundred guinea cup which later was named the America's Cup after her. America lasted for 95 years until she was destroyed in 1945.