

E N D E A V O U R

1 9 3 4

---

Designer: C. Nicholson

L.O.A. 129' 8"

L.W.L. 83' 3"

Draught: 14' 11"

Builder: Camper & Nicholson

Beam: 22' 0"

Displacement: 143 Tons

Sail Area: 7,561 Sq. Ft.

Commissioned by aircraft manufacturer T.O.M. Sopwith to challenge for the America's Cup in 1934. This J-Class sloop was designed by Charles Nicholson and built by Camper and Nicholson of Gosport, England. Endeavour won the first two races but went on to lose the next four and the cup to Rainbow.