

E N T E R P R I S E

1 9 3 0

Designer:	William Starling Burgess	Builder:	Herreshoff Mfg.
L.O.A.	120' 10"	Beam:	22' 1 1/4"
L.W.L.	80'	Displacement:	127.6 Tons
Draught:	14' 6"	Sail Area:	7583 Sq. Ft.

The first American J-Class to compete in the America's Cup races. Designed by W. Starling Burgess, and skippered by Harold Vanderbilt she beat Shamrock V to win the cup. Built at the Herreshoff Manufacturing plant in Bristol, RI. Enterprise was a thoroughly modern style boat with the first duraluminum mast and the now famous "Park Avenue" boom